The team at largemortgageloans.com take a discreet & individual approach to source the best possible financing terms for every client, no matter how challenging their situation. That's why we have been the market leader in the large mortgage space since we were founded in 2003.

We are incredibly proud of our team of expert advisers who boast an unrivalled, global network based upon decades of knowledge and expertise, coupled with a relentless determination to find solutions.

largemortgageloans.com has access to more than 200 international lenders, from high street names and challenger banks to small building societies, boutique lenders and specialist private banks. We have the ear of decision makers and the ability to present our clients' cases directly to people who matter, meaning our speed of response is second to none.

The extraordinary is our ordinary. We don't do 'off the shelf' or 'one size fits all' lending. Our high net worth clients demand solutions tailored to their complex lending needs. This can include foreign currency lending, expat or overseas mortgages; commercial and development finance; bridging loans or later life lending.

Just like people, properties are not always straightforward. You might be buying an 'off plan' property, a listed building or a buy to let which doesn't 'tick a box' with traditional lenders. Welcome to our world. We don't see our clients as a list of criteria to be fulfilled. We see opportunities to create bespoke lending solutions that fit every day human challenges.

If you have a particular need, or you're just exploring or researching financing options, talk to the industry experts in large and specialist finance.
